through soap scum and shower drainage from a row of showers. When asked about a replacement for the night — mattress, blankets, and sheet being a mandatory provision and condition of confinement, as a result of incarceration — S/o Avery told Plaintiff he did not need one if he was working out with them.

S/o Avery confiscated and seized Plaintiff's mattress, blankets, and sheet summarily without any notice or opportunity to be heard, and as a form of punishment. These acts are outside and exceeds the scope of the Program Statements implemented by the Bureau of Prisons, the 28th Title of the Code of Federal Regulations, and in violation of the IV and V Amendments of the Constitution.

[Plaintiff has also made an "Electronic Request" to the institutional authorities to preserve the camera footage to support his claims made herein this suit.]

[June 3rd 2022 and June 4, 2022.]

CLAIM TWO: Violation of VIII Amendment
Prohibition against Cruel and Unusual Punishment.

As S/o Avery took Plaintiff's mattress, blankets, and sheet — dragging said items through shower drainage — Plaintiff yelled out to the Unit prisoners to take notice and that she is refusing to replace said items.

S/o Avery did not return or replace said items and forced Plaintiff to sleep on reinforced steel with no blankets or mattress and caused him unnecessary pain and suffering in his shoulders and back.

This Seizure of mandatory provisions of Confinement and the pain and suffering in his Shoulders of the Plaintiff, caused by % AVERY was in violation of the Eighth Amendment prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment and was unnecessary and wantonly inflicted by % AVERY on Plaintiff.

[Again, the camera feed will show that Plaintiff's allegations herein are true beyond any doubt].

CLAIM THREE : Breach of Contract and Malpractice

Plaintiff hereby claims entitlement to an award for breach of contract and malpractice from % AVERY, in that % AVERY, by law, (Title 5 of the United States Code, § 3331) signed an oath of office - a contract - to support and defend the Constitution, to bear faith and allegiance to the same, that established an obligation, and that she would well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office which she was about to enter.

When % AVERY willfully, wantonly, and unnecessarily confiscated Plaintiff's bedding without any Due Process and in violation of the prohibition of cruel and unusual punishment, she violated the stipulations of the contract - her oath of office - that gave her the authority of her employment and office of profit.
